

Workplace Harassment

Workplace harassment is prohibited and shall not be tolerated. This includes workplace harassment that occurs between PBCCS employees or between employees in the workplace or at a work-related event that is off PBCCS premises and coordinated by or through the PBCCS, or between employees off PBCCS premises. Board members, volunteers and interns are subject to this policy.

Any PBCCS employee who believes they have been a victim of workplace harassment may file a report with the PBCCS employee designated in the administrative regulation GBEA-AR - Workplace Harassment Reporting and Procedure, may file a report through the Bureau of Labor and Industries' (BOLI) complaint resolution process or under any other available law. The reporting of such information is voluntary. The PBCCS employee making the report is advised to document any incidents of workplace harassment.

“Workplace harassment” means conduct that constitutes discrimination prohibited by Oregon Revised Statute (ORS) 659A.030 (discrimination in employment based on race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, marital status, age, or expunged juvenile record), including conduct that constitutes sexual assault¹ or that constitutes conduct prohibited by ORS 659A.082 (discrimination against person in uniformed service) or 659A.112 (discrimination in employment based on disability).

PBCCS, upon receipt of a report from a PBCCS employee who believes they are a victim of workplace harassment, shall provide information about legal resources and counseling and support services, including any available employee assistance services. The PBCCS employee receiving the report, whether a supervisor of the employer or the PBCCS employee designated to receive reports, is advised to document any incidents of workplace harassment, and shall provide a copy of this policy and accompanying administrative regulation to the victim upon their disclosure about alleged workplace harassment.

All incidents of behavior that may violate this policy shall be promptly investigated.

Any person who reports workplace harassment has the right to be protected from retaliation.

PBCCS may not require or coerce a PBCCS employee to enter into a nondisclosure² or nondisparagement³ agreement.

PBCCS may not enter into an agreement with an employee or prospective employee, as a condition of employment, continued employment, promotion, compensation, or the receipt of benefits, that contains a nondisclosure provision, a nondisparagement provision or any other provision that has the purpose or effect of preventing the employee from disclosing or discussing workplace harassment that occurred between PBCCS employees or between a PBCCS employee and PBCCS, in the workplace or at a work-related event that is off PBCCS premises and coordinated by or through PBCCS, or between a PBCCS employee and employer off PBCCS premises.

² A “nondisclosure” agreement or provision prevents either party from disclosing the contents of or circumstances surrounding the agreement.

³ A “nondisparagement” agreement or provision prevents either party from making disparaging statements about the other party.

PBCCS may enter into a settlement agreement, separation or severance agreement that includes one or more of the following provisions only when a PBCCS employee claiming to be aggrieved by workplace harassment requests to enter into the agreement: 1) a nondisclosure or nondisparagement provision; 2) a provision that prevents disclosure of factual information relating to the claim of workplace harassment; or 3) a no-rehire provision that prohibits the employee from seeking reemployment with PBCCS as a term or condition of the agreement. The agreement must provide the PBCCS employee at least seven days after signing the agreement to revoke it.

If PBCCS determines in good faith that an employee has engaged in workplace harassment, PBCCS may enter into a settlement, separation or severance agreement that includes one or more of the provisions described in the previous paragraph.

It is the intent of the Board that appropriate corrective action will be taken by the public charter school to stop workplace harassment, prevent its recurrence and address negative consequences. Staff members in violation of this policy shall be subject to discipline, up to and including dismissal and/or additional workplace harassment awareness training, as appropriate. Other individuals (e.g., board members and volunteers and interns) whose behavior is found to be in violation of this policy shall be subject to appropriate sanctions as determined and imposed by the administrator or the Board.

PBCCS shall make this policy available to all PBCCS employees and shall be made a part of PBCCS orientation materials provided and copied to new PBCCS employees at the time of hire.

The administrator will establish a process of reporting incidents of workplace harassment and the prompt investigation.
