A. Long-Range Planning Team Report

No recent news. Mr. Milner had a conversation with Superintendent Johnson.

VI. Financial Report (Rochelle Friend and Taryn Arnold)

A. Budget Update

1. Update on status of audit. Still in the middle and everything is going well. Still being finalized.
2. Organizations with less than 25 employees, 40% employer tax portion is not required for family leave. PBCCS is right on cusp of having 25 employees (22).

B. Budgeting for "Flat Funding"

1. The Governor's budget will not come out until February. Word is that the budget will only increase by 2% so that will feel like a decrease. Very much up in the air. February is when we normally start the budgeting process.

VII. Update from Director Crawford from meeting with CCSD Finance

1. Susan Crawford met with Anna Logan. She answered some SPED funding questions. We are not receiving SPED funding from CCSD. CCSD is receiving federal funding and then pays for some of our SPED services. Outdoor school is fully covered. $57K maintenance costs (no definite answers) Rent is $1. CCSD took over the lunch program and transportation costs. 83% of state school funding pass-through to PBCCS. We are in the middle of our 5 year charter. Runs out 2026. 4K printing budget given to us from CCSD.

VIII. Policy Review:
